

Landmark Community Theatre will present Jesus Christ Superstar at the Thomaston Opera House with ASL interpreters on Friday night, July 22nd at 8:00 PM. The performance will be interpreted by Christina Stevens and Anita Benjamin from Source Interpreting. The production is directed and choreographed by Foster Reese.

This rock opera is set against the backdrop of an extraordinary and universally known series of events but seen, unusually, through the eyes of Judas Iscariot. Loosely based on the Gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, Superstar follows the last week of Jesus Christ's life. The story, told entirely through song, explores the personal relationships and struggles between Jesus, Judas, Mary Magdalene, his disciples, his followers and the Roman Empire.

Unfortunately, tickets cannot be purchased online since we have specific seats reserved for patrons enjoying ASL interpretation. Seats can be purchased by phone, mail, or email and will be assigned on a first come first served basis. You can download a fillable form at landmarkcommunitytheatre.org by navigating to the tab that says Forms and emailing or mailing the completed form.
